

Chen Yan
Singapore

Chen Yan is a dedicated and compassionate nurse clinician with 19 years of experience in nursing. She started her career with National University Hospital in 2005 after graduated from Nanyang Polytechnic Singapore and comes with extensive experience in both high dependency unit and general surgical wards. Chen Yan is a reliable nurse leader with good clinical judgment and providing high-quality nursing care for neurosurgical patients.

For her excellent achievements as a nurse, Chen Yan received the MOH Nurses' Merit Award in 2024. She is open to changes and is the change driver among her team to achieve better outcome. Being able to make positive impacts on her patients' lives motivates her through her nursing journey.

Chen Yan holds a Bachelor of Nursing degree from the La Trobe University of Australia in 2010 and an Advanced Diploma in neuroscience from Nanyang Polytechnic Singapore in 2013.