

Lee Chee Hoe Lester
Singapore

Dr Lee Chee Hoe Lester is a Consultant in the Department of Neurosurgery in the National Neuroscience Institute and currently provides clinical care in Singapore General Hospital, Tan Tock Seng Hospital and Changi General Hospital.

In addition to general neurosurgery, Dr Lee has also subspecialised in skullbase and spine surgery. He is well versed in minimally invasive brain and spine surgery.

His current academic interests include minimally invasive brain surgery for haemorrhagic stroke as well as spinal tumours. He has published in the fields of neurotrauma, neurooncology and spinal tumours.

Topic: Spinal Metastases - Surgery is Possible and Durable