

Laura Tan
Singapore

Ms Laura Tan joined National University Hospital (NUH) in 1986 as a paediatric nurse, focusing on paediatric oncology. Over the years, she has become a pivotal figure in training nurses and caregivers across the various paediatric oncology services. Currently serving as a Senior Coordinator in NUH and the Care Coordinator for LOVE, NILS, Ms Laura plays a crucial role in collaborating with the oncology clinical team. Her dedication ensures seamless, coordinated care while enhancing communication and support for both patients and their families. Laura's commitment to improving the overall patient experience underscores her profound contribution in the field of paediatric oncology.

Topic: Joint Presentation by a Caregiver and a Hospital Care-Coordinator to Illustrate How Care was Extended Beyond the Hospital A joint presentation by Ms Laura Tan, a pediatric care coordinator with a National University Hospital Systems (NUHS) and Ms Karishma, a caregiver of a pediatric brain tumour patient. Through her recount of her challenges as a caregiver to her son, Karishma will reflect how needs of the patients and caregivers are now better met through close partnerships with Laura, a qualified nurse, serving in a professional capacity as a care coordinator.
