

Staphnie Tang
Singapore

Staphnie has a rich background in both the business world and the nonprofit sector. Outside of her professional life, she's been deeply involved in helping others for more than two decades.

Staphnie's commitment to giving back extends to her roles on charity boards and committees. She sat on the board of ISCOS, focused on reintegrating ex-offenders into society, been involved with the Yellow Ribbon Fund and the Community Justice Centre. She was President of the Breast Cancer Foundation from 2020-2023. Now she serves at LOVE, NILS Ltd, a charity providing crucial support to children and adolescents battling cancer and their families.

Topic: The Case for Brain Tumour Specialist Nurses: Benefits, Accountabilities and Challenges